INTERNSHIP COMPLETION CERTIFICATE

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

This is to certify that Malhar Nilesh Malap has successfully completed an 4 month internship as a Website Analyst at Dhumavati Consulting LLP from 1st June 2025 to 30th September 2025 During this tenure, Malhar served as the primary Technical Liaison between the executive leadership and the development team for our healthcare marketplace project. Their contributions were instrumental in the project's progression, specifically:

- Requirement Analysis & Engineering: Successfully translated high-level Website goals into detailed technical specifications, ensuring the development team had a clear roadmap for execution.
- Feature Innovation: Proactively identified and integrated 20+ new features into the website scope, including specialized modules for hospital leasing, pharma equity sales, and medical equipment marketplaces.
- Stakeholder Communication: Acted as a "bridge" to clarify project vision, resolve technical bottlenecks, and ensure that the final product aligned perfectly with the Website requirements.

Malhar is a highly capable analyst with a talent for balancing Website needs with technical constraints. Their ability to expand a project's scope while keeping the team aligned is a rare skill for an intern. We thank them for their dedication and recommend them highly for any future role in Website Analysis or Project Management.

Sincerely,

Manas Survee
CEO
